

More Roads from Mont Pèlerin – Neoliberalism Studies

Conference Program

Sunday, 20 March 2016

Origins of Neoliberalism (nine presentations)

10:00-10:15	Welcome, introduction
10:15-11:00	The Road to Earthdom: Putting the World Back into the Intellectual History of Neoliberalism Quinn Slobodian, Wellesley College, USA
11:15-11:30	Coffee break
11:30-12:15	The Intellectual and Institutional Roots of Early Neoliberalism Hagen Schulz-Forberg, Aarhus University
12:15-13:15	Lunch break
13:15-14:00	Early Neoliberalism and 'The Dual Argument' Ola Innset, European University Institute, Florence
14:15-15:00	Neoliberalism as Cultural Nationalism: The 'Swiss Group' and the Prehistory of the Mt. Pelerin Society Andrea Franc, University of Basel
15:00-15:30	Coffee break
15:30-16.15	Scandinavian Roots: Eli F. Heckscher and the Birth of Neoliberalism Niklas Olsen, University of Copenhagen / Jacob Jensen, Aarhus University
16.15-17.00	Neoliberal Blood in Italian Veins Fabio Masini, University of Rome 3
17:00-17:15	Coffee break
17:15-18:00	Cradle or Grave: The Forgotten History of Dutch Neoliberalism Merijn Oudenampsen, University of Tilburg / Bram Mellink, University of Amsterdam
18:00-18:45	Recoding Liberalism: Philosophy and Sociology of Science in Early Neoliberalism, 1931-1945 Martin Beddeleem, University of Montreal The Road Not Taken: Schütz in Dialogue with Hayek Holger Strassheim, Humboldt University Berlin
18:45-19:00	Wrapping up discussion

Monday, 21 March 2016

Unfolding Neoliberalism across Time and Space (nine presentations)

09:00-09:45	B.R. Shenoy, the Mont Pelerin Society, and India? Aditya Balasubramanian, University of Cambridge
09:45-10:30	Economic Determinism and Neo-Liberal Thought in China's First Decade of Reform Isabella Weber, University of Cambridge
10:30-11:00	Coffee break
11:00-11:45	New Liberalism and Neoliberalism in Japan before 1970s? Tamotsu Nishizawa, Teikyo University
11:45-12:30	Guatemala: An Authoritarian Hotbed of Neoliberal Think Tank Activism Karin Fischer, University of Linz
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-14:15	Ambiguities of South African Neoliberalism Vineet Takhur, University of Johannesburg
14:15-15:00	Neoliberals in Government Position: The Case of Iceland Lars Mjoset, University of Oslo
15:00-15:30	Coffee break
15:30-16.15	Think Tank Networks of German Neoliberalism Stephan Pühringer, University of Linz
16.15-17.00	Europe and the Return of Ordoliberalism Thomas Biebricher, Goethe University Frankfurt
17:00-17:30	Coffee break
17:30-18:30	Neoliberalism's Family Values (Keynote) Melinda Cooper, University of Sydney
	Reception, snacks til 19.30

Tuesday, 22 March 2016

Morning: Parallel panels, I: International Dimensions, II: Economic History

Afternoon: Relevance Making (Nobel Prize, Journalism, Think Tanks)
(nine presentations)

10:00-10:45	Taming Democracy and Liberalizing Capital Matthias Schmelzer, University of Zürich
10:45-11:30	Putting Services on the Global Trade Agenda: How Neoliberals Made Services a Trade Issue for the Multilateral Uruguay Round Elisabeth Winter, Free University Berlin
11:30-11:45	Coffee break
11:45-12:30	Imperial Power and Private Law: Ordo-Liberal Conceptualization of European Integration Joshua Rahtz, University of California L.A.
10:00-10:45	Human Behavior as a Limit to and a Means of State Intervention. Günter Schmolders and Behavioral Economics Rüdiger Graf, ZZF Potsdam, Germany
10:45-11:30	Elements of Neoliberal Identity: The Crisis and Revival of Entrepreneurship Dieter Plehwe, WZB
11:30-11:45	Coffee break
11:45-12:30	Making Individuals Fit for the Market – or, Hayek Comes to Orthodox Microeconomics Edward Nik-Khah, Roanoke College, USA
12:30-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-14:15	The Neoliberal Ersatz Nobel Prize Philip Mirowski, University of Notre Dame, USA
14:15-15:00	The Battle over the Public: American Neoliberal Journalism in the 1950s Tiago Mata, University College London
15:00-15:30	Coffee break
15:30-16.15	Constructing an Organizational Architecture for the Transnational Diffusion of Ideologies – The Case of Atlas and Neoliberalism Marie Laure Djelic, ESSEC, Paris
16:15-17:00	Final discussion